Feed my lambs, feed my sheep

Devastated by the death of Jesus, it seems that Peter and the other apostles had decided to return to their former occupations. In the early morning, after a fruitless night's fishing, the risen Jesus revealed himself once again on the Sea of Tiberias. He directed his Apostles to bring forth a great catch of fish, a symbol of the Church's future mission. The longer form of today's gospel describes Jesus giving Peter the opportunity to redeem himself after his three-fold denial of his Lord. Three times Peter professes his faith and devotion to Jesus.

CAFOD & climate change

This summer the government will decide whether to end the UK's contribution to climate change by committing to an ambitious net zero emissions target. As people of faith, we're determined to speak up for our common home. On Wednesday 26 June, CAFOD and its supporters will come together with over 100 like-minded organisations – members of The Climate Coalition – to speak to our politicians and make our voices heard. The Time is Now to tell our leaders that enough is enough. This is not the legacy that we want to leave for our grandchildren. You can join our CAFOD Climate Pilgrimage, registering for the Lobby and signing up for the CAFOD Lancaster coach cafod.org.uk/Campaign/Climate/Climate-lobby
